MET Watchlist Pattern Bearish

ORI

AIZ

MetLife Inc MET recently expanded its relationship with DentalInsurance.com to continue marketing its dental insurance plans. DentalInsurance.com is a leading online dental insurance provider offering comparable insurance policies to individuals.

MET, a leading commercial dental insurer, offers quality products with a variety of affordable choices to meet a person's oral health requirements. This move bodes well for MET as more of its products will be visible on the DentalInsurance.com website, boosting sales.

MET offers dental insurance in the United States through its group benefits segment. This partnership will boost the group benefits segment due to more market penetration. MetLife aims to provide its customers with exceptional service experience with DentalInsurance.com, which is known to provide impeccable customer service.
